HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DAY AT PRINCES ROAD SYNAGOGUE

MONDAY 27 JANUARY 2025
AT 19.15 PM

BETWEEN THE NOTES OF LIFE TESTIMONY TO THE ROMANI GENOCIDE

A READING WITH MUSIC

Among the victims of Nazi racism were hundreds of thousands of European Roma – interned, murdered, sterilised and driven from their homes. Manolito Steinbach is a German Sinto, born in Berlin, and a professional musician. He grew up hearing about the Nazi persecution of the Roma from his grandmother, who survived Ravensbrück concentration camp and Auschwitz. His life has been shaped by the Holocaust experiences and memories of his own family and friends. It has also been marked by the continuing prejudice and discrimination against Roma, which exists all over Europe and has been described as the last respectable form of racism.

On this day when we remember those persecuted and murdered by the Nazis and their allies, Manolito will read from his book of memories.

Musical interludes will be provided by the Swing Trio Manouche (Manolito Steinbach and Donny Schwarz on guitar and Sorin Ferat on the violin).
